

Investing for Success

Under this agreement for 2022 Brookfield State School will receive

$,133,446*

This funding will be used to

- Increase the percentage of students achieving As and Bs to 75% in English, and science and continue to increase Maths beyond 77%
- >95% of students achieving fundamental literacy and numeracy expectations aligned with the Australian Curriculum
- >80% of Year 3 and Year 5 students performing in the NAPLAN Upper Two Bands for Reading
- >80% of Year 3 students and >45% of Year 5 students performing in the NAPLAN Upper Two Bands for Writing
- >75% of Year 3 and Year 5 students performing in the NAPLAN Upper Two Bands for Numeracy

Our initiatives include

Initiative	Evidence-base
Embedding the Pedagogical Approach through collaborative planning with evidence-based practices, for student outcomes to progress and achieve in response to data.	Gradual release of responsibility model
Developing clarity on the collection, analysis and response to data to inform teaching and learning.	BESST Collaboration Collaborative Planning
Implementing a whole school, differentiated approach to support student learning beginning in the classroom so that resources are most effectively used to lift student learning.	Department of Education

Our school will improve student outcomes by

Actions	Costs
Provide teaching staff opportunities to work collaboratively through BESST and planning opportunities.	$50,000
Implement Early start literacy and numeracy diagnostic assessment in prep, year 1 and year 2 tracking student literacy and numeracy	$10,000
Increase teachers use of student learning data to identify and support student's literacy and numeracy outcomes .	$10,000
Engaging an additional, Deputy Principal to support student's engagement and the implementation of the early year's curriculum units in P-2.	$63,446

Leanne Duncan
Principal
Brookfield State School

Deborah Wallis
School council chair
Brookfield State School

Queensland
Government